FROM OUR MINISTERS

Bad To the Bone

When Valerie and I first moved into our neighborhood, we thought the squirrels scampering all over the place were so cute. Then we discovered the terrible truth; these were "Bad to the Bone" squirrels! After frequent acts of terrorism upon our patio furniture and flower beds, even Valerie had enough. Our solution was to place a squirrel trap in our backyard.

At first, they approached the cage with caution, but were slowly lured inside by the irresistible urge of a free treat. Now, a couple of them actually got away with it a few times but, eventually, the trap snapped shut on the pesky little varmints!

You know, it got me thinking about the insidious nature of sin in our world today. Just like those squirrels, many people recognize that sin is a trap waiting to ensnare them, but they can't resist trying to get away with it, until the trap finally snaps shut on them! Maybe we should all remember that bible verse that says, "...And be sure your sin will find you out." (Num. 32:23)

My friends, the devil has all kinds of traps that he wants to use on all of us. Whether it's the lure of fame, fortune, relationships or anything else, the enemy knows just the right bait to set in his traps. What one must realize is that just because you get away with sin once or twice does not mean that you are free from danger. Just like that trap door snaps shut the bible plainly states that your sin will find you out!

The good news is that no one has to be ensnared by the trap of sin. Because of what Jesus did on our behalf, the price for forgiveness and freedom from all sin has been paid! It's up to each individual to make the most of the opportunity and not be ensnared by the trap of sin. Don't let the door snap shut on you; why not obey the gospel today and find in Christ true freedom from the deadly trap of sin.

John Phillips, Jr.

August 2024

Let's begin this month's communication with accolade. AR Foodbank is celebrating 40 years at the forefront of hunger relief, distributing millions of meals to Arkansas individuals and families across its 33-county service area.

Pinnacle Church of Christ has been a faithful contributor each week providing help to cover over 416 million meals...but there is a somber reality...families are making difficult choices, necessities like housing, healthcare and putting food on the table.

This month let's just fill the AR Foodbank barrel!

- All canned meat
- All canned vegetables
- Healthy cereals
- All canned soup
