FROM OUR MINISTERS

Keep on Keeping On

My wife Valerie and I used to walk around our neighborhood for fitness and exercise. That is, until my hip gave out on me and, now, I just sit and watch as others do what I can no longer do! So, as I sat and watched the Olympics on TV the other day, I saw them running races. There were the sprints, the hurdles and then the marathons. You know, it got me thinking; we all have different races in our spiritual lives as well.

Some think of life as an all-out sprint, but the truth is that life is a marathon. You'll hear marathons talk about "breaking through the wall." They run until they are on the verge of collapsing, but by sheer determination they press on and, suddenly, they are through the wall. They get their second wind, but it's more than that. They experience an almost euphoric feeling, a runner's high. That experience corresponds with those moments in our spiritual life when we are literally overwhelmed with the presence of God! It may not happen every time we pray or read the Scriptures, but when it does, it makes everything – all the discipline, all the trials and tribulation, all the hours of waiting – worthwhile. The prophet Isaiah says, "But those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles; They shall run and not be weary; They shall walk and not faint." Isaiah 40:31 (NKJV)

I don't know where you are spiritually today. Maybe you're flying down the track of life in a sprint to the finish line. Maybe you're like me, just hobbling along trying to finish the race. Just remember that, wherever you are, we must all "keep on keeping on" and, one day, we'll cross the finish line of eternity. May the Lord help each of us to keep pressing through until we make heaven our home.

John Phillips, Jr.

July 2024—NO KID HUNGRY

The pause in school meals during summer vacation means that many students in our community are left without enough to eat. Without regular meals at school, families facing hunger struggle even more to make sure there is enough food on the table. Pinnacle is working in partnership with AR FoodBank to help eliminate childhood hunger by reaching kids where they live, work, and play.

As stated in last months communication we will continue our focus on 'Kid Friendly' items. Let's fill the AR FoodBank barrel each week, this month!

- Canned ravioli, chicken, and fish
- Canned fruits and vegetables
- Nutritious granola bars and cereals
- Peanut butter and other nut butters
- Instant oatmeal packets
- Shelf-stable milk
