FROM OUR MINISTERS

Be On Your Guard Against Greed

Luke 12:13-21 records an occasion where Jesus was asked to serve as an arbitrator between two brothers fighting over an inheritance. Declining to get involved in such a hopeless proposition, he warned them to "Be on your guard against all kinds of greed. A man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

And then to make the point clearer still, he told them a story. In case anyone was or is paying attention.

It is telling that two millennia later, we are still wading through the same inane problems, driven by greed.

It is estimated that one out of every six verses involving Jesus' teachings is on the subject of money. All evidence to the contrary, people still act as if possessions make a successful, happy life.

They don't.

Recently I had the unpleasant experience of trying to mediate a dispute between siblings over an inheritance. It was heartbreaking to see a relationship broken over greed and selfishness.

Don't make the fatal mistake of falling victim to greed — it is idolatry (Col. 3:5).

— Chuck Monan

September 2024

Recently, one of our dear brothers at Pinnacle helped our weekly food contribution to the AR Foodbank with a substantial donation of funds that enabled us to provide 800 pounds of food for families and provided a substantial number of meals. The faces of hunger are more diverse and less predictable today, and as the cost of living steadily rises, working families, veterans, and seniors are increasingly pressured to make their fixed incomes go further.

Because of you, someone will eat today. Please consider items from the list below:

- Soups, especially hearty meals like chili or stew
- Canned meat: chicken, tuna, ham, Vienna sausages
- Healthy cereal
- Spaghetti and marinara sauce
- Heat and serve macaroni & cheese
- Canned fruit & individual fruit cups
- Instant food mixes that only require water: mashed potatoes, biscuit mixes, instant oatmeal
- Shelf stable milk & alternatives (rice, soy, etc.)
- Canned vegetables: potatoes, collard greens, beans, carrots, spinach or peas
- Rice
