FROM OUR MINISTERS

Fry the Friendly Skies

A recent headline in the Washington Post jumped off the page: "A plane fueled by fat and sugar has crossed the Atlantic Ocean." At first I thought this meant those passengers shared my affinity for non-healthy snacks. But it was about the "sustainable aviation fuel" made from things like corn, animal fat, algae, municipal trash, and sewage. Uh, OK. There are at least a few of us, though, that would just as soon not fry the friendly skies until they actually figure this out.

I'm all for being responsible stewards of the planet God created for us. But it seems that many are far more committed to avoiding fossil fuels than being ready to meet the Creator at the end of life's little day.

Something to think about the next time you're traveling somewhere fueled by leftover oil from the fryer.

— Chuck Monan

SERVING

Arkansas Foodbank - January 2024

Happy New Year...As we begin 2024 let each of us reflect on our blessings and opportunities. The Arkansas Foodbank is one such opportunity and a huge asset to our community, addressing the food insecurity challenges in our area. Each month the Pinnacle Church of Christ is making a difference in our community by contributing necessary food items distributed each day. Let's help by filling our Foodbank barrel. Specifically, most often need items are:

- | | | |
|-----------------|---------------------|-----------------------------------|
| ■ Peanut Butter | ■ Canned Vegetables | ■ Canned Beans |
| ■ Canned Soup | ■ Canned Stew | ■ Pasta (most prefer whole grain) |
| ■ Canned Fruit | ■ Canned Fish | |
